SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. All Russian-licensed newspapers have been ordered to appoint an editor for special military questions who will have regular access to the office in the SMA concerned with military and police questions.
2. This editor, whose responsibility is to be set apart from the other functions of the paper, will receive material on "re-militarization" in the western zones of Germany and the armament industry in the West. His particular assignment is to present a picture of the growing war preparations of the Western Powers and the inclusion of western Germany and the neutral countries in these preparations.

25X1A6a Comment: The military specialist for the Tägliche Rundschau is von Wilcknitz.)
